Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed reference listed in the information Disclosure submitted on 09/28/99 have been considered by the examiner (see attached PTO-1449).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-40, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the admitted prior art as mentioned on specification on pages 1-5 in view of RFC 2002 Perkins, ED Mobile IP. Regarding Claims 1, 3, 10, 13, 23, 27, 37, 39, the admitted prior art teaches a network device which supports mobile IP and is configured to send an accounting request, the accounting request identifying a mobile node, the network device composing: a memory, and a processor coupled to the memory, wherein the network device is adapted for updating a counter associated with the mobile node's activity (Page 3 lines 23-30, Page 4 lines 1-5). The admitted prior art does not specifically mention that the network device adapted for sending the accounting request including the counter to a server adapted for recording accounting information associated with the mobile node. However RFC 2002 Mobile IP teaches that the network device adapted for sending the accounting request including the counter to a server adapted for recording accounting information associated with the mobile node (Page 15 lines 1-5). Therefore, it would have been obvious to the ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the above teaching of RFC to the admitted prior art, in order provide the quantity of information sent and received by mobile nodes.

Regarding Claims 2, 5, 9, 15-17, 20, 25, 29-31, 34, the admitted prior art teaches a network device received and send packets by the mobile node (Page 3 lines 4-18) . The admitted prior art does not specifically mention that a counter indicates number of packets and number of bytes that received and send to the mobile node. However RFC teaches a counter indicates number of packets and number of bytes that received and send to the mobile node (Page 15 lines 1-5, Page 41 lines 1-20) Therefore, it would have been obvious to the ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the above teaching of RFC to the admitted prior art, in order to keep track of number times that system registers.

Regarding Claims 4, 26, 28, 38, 40, the admitted prior art teaches a server that is adapted for sending an accounting reply to the network device in response to the accounting request ( Page 3 lines 4-10, lines 25-30). The admitted prior art fails to teach that the accounting reply acknowledging logging of the accounting information pertaining to the mobile node. However when a mobile registers to the Base station the acknowledgment response is a well known feature in the mobile system. Therefore, it would have been obvious to the ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the above teaching to the admitted prior art, in order to let the mobile know that the registration is complete.

Art Unit:

Regarding Claims 6-7, 14, 18, 32, the admitted prior art teaches a server wherein the counter indicates a number of registrations that have been accepted (Page 3 lines 26-30).

Regarding Claims 8, 19, 33, the admitted prior art teaches a server wherein the counter indicates a total service time for the mobile node (Page 3 lines 27-28).

Regarding Claims 11, 21, 35, the admitted prior art teaches a server wherein the network device is a Home Agent or a Foreign Agent (Page 2 lines 2-6).

Regarding Claims 12, 22, 36, the admitted prior art fails to teach a server wherein the server is a TACACS + or a RADIUS server. However RFC 2002 Mobile IP publication teaches a server wherein the server is a TACACS + or a RADIUS server (Page 10 lines 7-10). Therefore, it would have been obvious to the ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the above teaching of RFC to the admitted prior art, in order to provide security association for registration authentication.

Regarding Claim 24, the admitted prior art teaches a method further including forwarding the data packet to another network device (Page 3 lines 7-12).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Penners et al. (US Patent Number 5,793,762) disclose system and method for providing packet data and voice services to mobile subscribers
